

The Margaret Hetley Scholarship

eit.ac.nz

2018

The Margaret Hetley Scholarship is awarded annually in February and was established to assist women to undertake tertiary study and to commemorate the centennial year of the women's suffrage movement. It was named in memory of Mrs Margaret Hetley who gifted the EIT campus to the Hawke's Bay community.

Who can apply

The scholarship is for all females enrolling at EIT Hawke's Bay at any level, limited to students who have been resident in Hawke's Bay for the last 12 months and must be a New Zealand resident. It will be awarded on the basis of qualities and attributes that would enable them to succeed and possibly staircase into higher academic programmes.

This is not available for females already receiving fee support through government or EIT scholarships. (This does not include student loans.)

Details of the scholarship

1. Scholarship Funding Details

An amount of $1,750 will be available to be granted as fee support for a single student in their first year of study at EIT.

Payment of the scholarship will be made by the Otātāra Trust Inc to the EIT Registry Office in part payment of the successful applicant's course fees.

2. Criteria

Applicants must

- Express in writing your motivation for working in your chosen study area, including where you see your future career path, and what opportunity you would like to create for yourself in this industry or sector. This must be supplied as a cover letter with a minimum of 250 words.
- Provide written references from two of the following:
 - Your current school or
 - Member of the community or
 - Employer - paid or voluntary
- Provide evidence of a brief, realistic career path.
- Be a New Zealand permanent resident or citizen.

The Margaret Hetley Scholarship

3. Decisions

The granting of the scholarship will be assessed by a panel comprising of

- A Students' Association representative.
- At least two other people appointed by the Chief Executive.

The panel's decision will be final.

How to apply

Applications close on 31 January and applicants will be advised of the outcome by the end of February.
