

Lawson Robinson Hawke's Bay A&P Society Scholarship

The aims of the Trust are:

This scholarship aims to recognise outstanding academic and leadership qualities in a student currently enrolled in a full time land based production industries programme, either graduate or post-graduate, at a New Zealand University.

Preference will be given to applicants, who are within one year of completing their studies. They will have a familial association with Hawke's Bay and are, or have been, involved in the practical aspects of the industry to which the programme is linked. The criteria for selection will be based on leadership potential and academic merit. It is hoped that the recipient will ultimately seek employment in Hawke's Bay and pass on the benefits of their learning to the community at large.

The recipient will receive NZD$3,000 towards their course fees.

Selection Process

The criteria for selection will be based on leadership potential and academic merit. It is hoped that scholarship recipients will ultimately seek employment in Hawke's Bay and pass on the benefits of their learning to the Hawke's Bay community and its industries.

The Scholarship will be awarded by a Selection Committee of three members comprising:

- A representative from Lawson Robinson.
- A representative from the Hawke's Bay A&P Society.
- A recognised leader from the farming community selected and agreed by Lawson Robinson and the Hawke's Bay A&P Society.

Please find the Application form and details overleaf, or additional copies are available from Lawson Robinson or the Hawke's Bay A&P Society.
