Nau mai haere mai ki Te Pūkenga

Te Pūkenga is building a national network of integrated learning in Aotearoa New Zealand that better meets the needs of learners, their whānau, employers and the community.

By bringing together on-the-job, on campus and online learning, Te Pūkenga is creating a network that gives learners more choices and flexibility in what, where and how they learn.

Te Pūkenga

Please note our programmes of study are currently under review as part of the Reform of Vocational Education training. The objective is to provide one programme for Te Pūkenga that is portable, consistent, and more closely aligned with the needs of industry. As the review is ongoing, this prospectus is correct at the time of publishing but the courses outlined may change over time.

Kia ora huihui mai tātou

It's my pleasure to be able to provide an introduction in this 2024 prospectus and welcome you to Te Pūkenga, nei te reo rāhiri e rere atu ana – nau piki mai, nau kake mai ki Te Pūkenga.

In 2020, the government reviewed the vocational education system in Aotearoa New Zealand and made some significant changes for how it would work in the future.

One of those changes was the creation of Te Pūkenga, New Zealand Institute of Skills and Technology. The change meant that all of the country's Kura Tini, Institutes of Technology and Polytechnics such as EIT as well as some of the country's Industry Training Organisations which focus on work-based learning such as apprenticeships, will now sit within one organisation – Te Pūkenga.

By bringing these organisations together, it means we can create a national network of on-the-job, on campus and online learning opportunities that give learners more choice and flexibility in what, where and how they learn throughout Aotearoa New Zealand.

For those of you thinking of enrolling with EIT for study in 2024, this means you are going to be enrolling with a national organisation and you will receive a qualification from Aotearoa New Zealand's largest education provider, Te Pūkenga.

You'll still be able to study in Hawke's Bay and Tairāwhiti but you'll have the additional benefits that come from being part of a national network – such as more support, more study options and increased ability to switch between different types of learning if your circumstances change.

A national network means we can plan better for the future needs of Aotearoa. We want to make sure that when you enrol in a programme, you are gaining skills that are needed by Aotearoa and around the world – giving you more job security and ultimately increasing your opportunities for success.

Our transformation is a journey that will take time but one thing is clear, everything we do is centred around our learners and their whānau. We have a relentless focus of equity and we're setting the foundations to deliver to Te Tiriti o Waitangi and its principles, and most importantly to the aspirations of Māori learners, their whānau, and iwi/hapū.

Throughout this prospectus you may notice that a number of programmes are changing.

We are unifying programmes to make sure they are consistent across the country. This means if your circumstances change, you'll be able to continue with your study rather than having to start again. It's just one of the ways we are working to make learning fit around life, rather than making life fit around learning.

Whether you're looking to continue with your study or try something fresh, we look forward to you joining Te Pūkenga whānau and being part of this transformational journey with us.

Mā te kimi ka kite. Mā te kite ka mōhio. Mā te mōhio ka mārama – Seek and discover. Discover and know. Know and the world of light is yours to behold.

If you have any questions or want to find out more about Te Pūkenga, visit our website tepukenga.ac.nz or email us at info@tepukenga.ac.nz – we'd love to hear from you.

Ngā mihi nui

Peter Winder
Tumuaki | Chief Executive

Welcome

From 2023 all EIT ākonga are enrolled with Te Pūkenga, which brings together all the other polytechnics in New Zealand. Being a part of Te Pūkenga means we are more connected to the other organisations delivering vocational and applied education and we work with them to share skills and knowledge to better help you succeed.

Te Pūkenga is creating a network of online, on-campus and on-job learning to give ākonga like you more flexibility in what, where and how you learn.

When you study at EIT | Te Pūkenga you'll get the kind of experiences that will help you gain the knowledge and skills to get ahead, whether you want to break into your chosen career or change direction in life.

Experience being part of a vibrant learning community and be taught by experienced kaiako who have track records as respected academics, researchers and industry professionals.

Get the benefit of EIT | Te Pūkenga's long-established connections with industry throughout New Zealand. Many of our programmes are field-based and hands-on to help you develop relevant work skills, gain practical experience, and get useful industry contacts which can set you on the path to a great job, all while you're studying.

Have the experience of studying at our modern well-equipped campuses, at our regional learning centres or at a pop-up location, and you'll gain invaluable experience using our facilities and state-of-the-art technology.

There are a range of full-time, part-time and online study opportunities available to you as well as scholarships and free programme options.

At EIT | Te Pūkenga, you'll get the support you need to help make sure you get rewards for your hard work. If you're serious about study and your future, EIT | Te Pūkenga is right behind you.

Learn in classes that are the right size to make sure you get the involvement and support you need. EIT | Te Pūkenga provides help and guidance with everything from study planning to applying for a job after you complete your studies.

Be supported by kaiako who are here for you, within a learning environment where you are treated as an individual, not a number. They'll know your name and you'll receive one-on-one attention to make sure you get the support to succeed.

Learn with Purpose

Some people know exactly what they want to do in life, so choosing what to study is easy for them. They know what they are good at; they know their strengths and how they want to use them. But for many people it's not so easy. There are lots of courses, many different jobs, and plenty of career choices out there. So making the right decision about what to study can seem daunting.

It's important to get lots of information to help you make a well-informed decision. A good place to start is the Government's Careers NZ website at careers.govt.nz.

It's a good idea to think about what you're interested in. Spend some time thinking about what you like and don't like, and what you're good at. If you have a profession in mind, you could talk to people who are working in the industry. They can tell you which skills, experience and qualifications you need.

You may find that you have knowledge, skills or previous achievements that can count towards your qualification. At EIT | Te Pūkenga, we've got lots of experience supporting ākonga to make important decisions and pointing them in the right direction.

Come and have a chat with us. We can put you in touch with programme coordinators and arrange an appointment to talk with the career's advisor about your career, training and education choices.

Why study with us?

At EIT | Te Pūkenga, you can be confident in the quality of our teaching and your learning experience.

Experienced kaiako

EIT | Te Pūkenga is highly regarded in New Zealand for research excellence due to the quality of our community centred research, our publications and our external grant income provided by funding institutions who have confidence in our research capability. This means that your kaiako use the latest knowledge and research in their field of expertise to inform their teaching, and many are at the forefront of knowledge creation within their discipline area.

We ensure that we provide our ākonga with opportunities to generate new knowledge during their programme of study, providing meaningful and authentic learning experiences.

We are committed to providing our ākonga with a rich and rewarding research informed education experience through developing enquiring minds; exposure to the latest knowledge and thinking; and changing the nature of the dialogue between kaiako and ākonga to become one of partnership.

How we'll support you

Studying takes determination, commitment and self-discipline. As a student at EIT | Te Pūkenga, you can get support to help you focus on what really matters – your studies and your future.

When you become a student at EIT | Te Pūkenga, it may be your first time away from home, or the first time you've studied at tertiary level. It may all be very new to you.

Your studies will take up a lot of your time, so you may need a hand with other parts of life.

To help you get the most out of your time here, EIT | Te Pūkenga offers you support in all sorts of ways. Whether you're after help to choose the right subjects or you need some guidance to show you the best way to get into your chosen career, there's someone available to help.

Get personal one-on-one help from friendly experts at EIT | Te Pūkenga who have plenty of experience assisting ākonga like you. They're on campus to offer advice, information and guidance.

We want your time at EIT | Te Pūkenga to be exciting, productive and successful, so make sure you take advantage of all the support we offer.

Our Campuses and Accommodation

EIT | Te Pūkenga offers you qualifications from certificate to postgraduate level at campuses in Hawke's Bay, Tairāwhiti (Gisborne) and Auckland (international only). Or you can learn closer to home at one of the Regional Learning Centres in Hastings, Maraenui, Ruatoria, Waipukurau and Wairoa, plus other pop-up centres near you.

EIT | Te Pūkenga Hawke's Bay, located in Taradale is one of New Zealand's most attractive campuses with superb architecture and shaded outdoor areas for study and relaxation on warm days. The main campus at EIT | Te Pūkenga Tairāwhiti and our Rural Studies Unit are in the heart of Gisborne, near the Taruheru River, and you can't get more central than EIT | Te Pūkenga Auckland's location on Queen Street.

Our Regional Learning Centres are conveniently located, easy to access, close to public transport, where available and tailored to meet the needs of ākonga and kaimahi.

Our campuses have top quality facilities, purpose-built for EIT | Te Pūkenga programmes, including high-tech trades workshops, professional-standard training kitchens and fully-equipped wine science and viticulture laboratories.

Our libraries put resources at your fingertips, with expert librarians on-hand to help you. You can get your textbooks and stationery from the Ōtātara Bookshop at the Hawke's Bay Campus and make use of the campus-wide free wifi.

You can have your work professionally printed through our fully-equipped printing services (Reprographics) who handle everything from large format printing to document binding, for a price that won't put a dent in your finances.

Hungry after all your study? You can enjoy bustling campus cafés and student training cafés to catch up with fellow ākonga over a cup of coffee or lunch.

Accommodation while you study

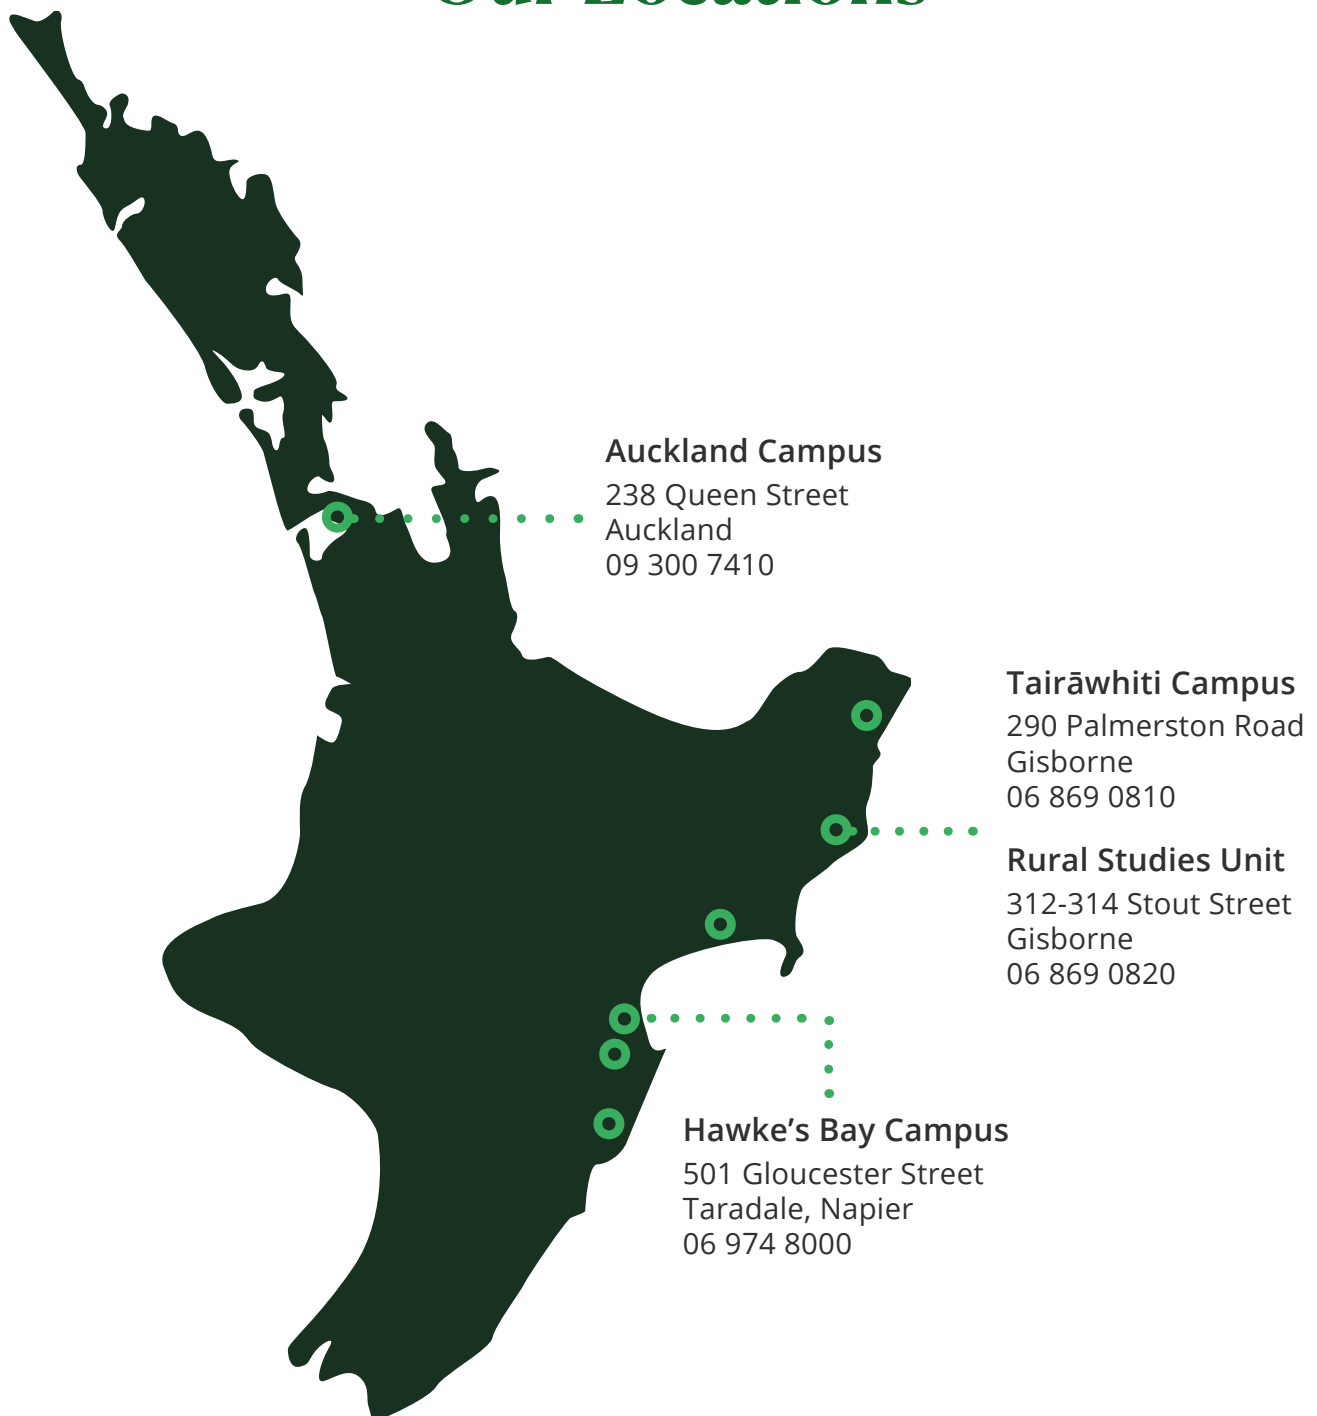

Accommodation is available in the EIT | Te Pūkenga Student Village opposite the Hawke's Bay Campus.

The Student Village is a self-catering complex of 12 villas housing six ākonga in each. Both New Zealand and international ākonga live together (mixed gender). Each student has their own furnished bedroom. Ākonga share lounge, kitchen, dining, laundry and bathroom facilities in each villa.

Rooms fill fast so enquire today.

Financial support for your study

EIT | Te Pūkenga has a number of ways to help financially support your study. This could be through one of the many free programmes* we offer or the range of scholarships we have available.

Scholarships make life easier by helping to cover your fees and living expenses while you complete your qualification. You don't always need to be an academic high-flyer to qualify.

We offer scholarships awarded to eligible Māori and Pasifika ākonga, scholarships for postgraduate ākonga, and scholarships that are generously offered by our industry partners.

EIT | Te Pūkenga is also delighted to be one of the New Zealand tertiary institutions to offer a fees-free year of tuition for eligible first-time tertiary ākonga through the Government Fees-Free initiative.

There are many other scholarships that are specific to the programme that you decide to study, be it nursing, horticulture, business or trades.

So make sure you find out what's available at eit.ac.nz/students/scholarships or for general scholarship information please contact scholarships@eit.ac.nz.

Disability and Wellbeing Support

Disability Support

Support is available for ākonga with physical, sensory, intellectual, and learning disabilities (including dyslexia, dyspraxia etc., and other neurodiversity) and mental health conditions. Support is designed to provide equitable opportunities and is available to all ākonga with permanent or temporary disabilities or health conditions, including when recovering from injury or surgery. Services are available depending upon your needs and range from information and advice to technology solutions and alternative arrangements for test and exams.

Our Disability peer support group Te Rōpu Āwhina meets regularly on the Hawke's Bay Campus to share kai, connection and wellbeing.

Wellbeing Support

Wellbeing support is available to all ākonga. You do not need to have a disability or health condition and wellbeing advice doesn't have to be study related. We can help you to identify your goals, support your needs, and connect you with appropriate support on and off campus. We use Te Whare Tapa Whā as our guiding model for holistic support and connectedness.

We have a Rainbow Diversity peer support group on the Hawke's Bay campus, as well as wellbeing drop ins and we run wellbeing workshops to support you to maintain and improve your wellbeing.

Contact us early so we can assist you confidentially with your requirements.

Te Ūranga Waka (Hawke's Bay) Te Whatukura (Te Tairāwhiti) Māori Studies

“Piki ake, kake ake i te toi huarewa, te ara o Tāwhaki, i piki ai ki runga.”

Māori language is vital to New Zealand, and our identity. As Māori language becomes more widely used through kōhanga reo, primary schools and kura kaupapa Māori, a new generation is embracing te reo Māori and ensuring that this special taonga is shared and treasured.

At Te Ūranga Waka in Hawke's Bay and Te Whatukura in Te Tairāwhiti, our te reo studies offer qualifications from basic introductory level learning through to a specialised masters programme, and gives you the opportunity to become proficient in Māori customs, culture and research.

Your career opportunities

You can work in government departments, hospital boards, teaching (kōhanga, primary, secondary and tertiary), or work with local iwi as a liaison or policy advisor.

You could work in television and radio as a reporter, scriptwriter, announcer or bilingual researcher.

You can also take on key roles at your own marae and within your whānau, hapū and iwi.

Many employers now prefer bilingual and bicultural employees, especially as te reo Māori is an official language of New Zealand.

Primary Industries

Agriculture | Apiculture | Horticulture | Commercial Road Transport | Environment

The food and fibre industry needs well-trained employees. EIT | Te Pūkenga offers programmes to meet the industry demand for skilled kaimahi.

EIT | Te Pūkenga delivers a range of qualifications targeted at the Primary Industry Sector. In our agriculture programmes you will gain hands-on skills in stock handling, vehicles and machinery, fencing, soils and pastures.

Demand for roles in the environmental management sector are growing as people's awareness of environmental challenges and sustainability increases.

Our new environmental management programmes allow you to progress to degree level.

In our horticulture programmes you can choose from a wide range of qualifications. Learn all about soil types, plant science, propagation, pest and disease management, irrigation, harvesting and sustainable practices. Gain an understanding of horticultural technology and management.

You'll have access to horticulture laboratories, greenhouses, propagation facilities and garden plots.

EIT | Te Pūkenga has a managed apprenticeship programme for fruit production apprentices. The apprentices work in Tairāwhiti and Hawke's Bay's biggest industry and gain qualifications and experience at the same time.

There are also diploma level horticulture programmes in fruit production and post-harvest. These are designed for those in industry who want to further their knowledge and careers.

The Certificate in Commercial Road Transport enables you to gain your Class 2, 4 and 5 licences through the use of our truck and trailer, transporting goods around Hawke's Bay and Tairāwhiti.

Your career opportunities

Agriculture

The agricultural industry continues to grow and develop. As a qualified graduate you will be recognised as a skilled individual who has industry relevant skills. Our qualifications are designed to provide pathways irrespective of your initial skill level or knowledge. This could be as a farm assistant or contractor, through to a management or supervisory role across a variety of agricultural careers.

Horticulture

The horticulture industry continues to expand and a wide range of careers are available for qualified employees. The industry is using more and more technology and expensive equipment, and highly skilled employees are needed to manage and run them.

Careers can range from on-orchard managers and technical kaimahi to those in the post-harvest industry who are essential for maintaining the quality of our local and export produce.

Apiculture

Beekeeping offers many exciting career opportunities, both in New Zealand and overseas. Opportunities include: hobbyist beekeeper, part-time or full-time employment through to ownership of a commercial beekeeping operation.

Graduates can work as an assistant beekeeper for a commercial operator or as an independent beekeeper with a small number of beehives.

Commercial Road Transport

EIT | Te Pūkenga has strong connections with industry in commercial road transport. There is a general shortage of good qualified commercial drivers with Class 4 or 5 licences. We enable ākonga to find work experience placements with major trucking companies who are looking for keen and qualified drivers and have a good record of ākonga, both male and female, who go on to employment upon graduation.

Environmental Studies

Increase your knowledge and so understanding of the ever-expanding world of environmental management and sustainability. You can study a range of environmental courses in our Level 5 and 6 Diplomas in Environmental Management which lead onto a Bachelor of Applied Science (Biodiversity Management).
