Timetable

Your study time will be made up of contact time (class times, tutorials) and non-contact time (your own individual study time, online learning).

Contact time

Most courses are delivered in a mix of online and face-to-face learning. There will typically be three or four days of on-campus classes per course.

On-campus classes are usually scheduled between 8.00am-8.00pm, Monday to Friday.

For a current timetable, please refer to eit.ac.nz/students/timetable.

Non-contact time

You should plan to spend approximately 20 hours of individual study per 30 credit course, per week, including scheduled classroom time.

Entry requirements

Note: Please submit an official academic transcript showing your grades with your application form.

Te Tohu Paerua mō Te Aka Whakaaroaro | MPP

- An undergraduate degree in a socio-cultural field with a B average or better; or
- B average in a postgraduate qualification (Level 8); or
- Where the applicant does not meet the entry criteria above, the applicant may be admitted to the PGDipPP and upon successful completion of two courses (B average) from the Schedule to the Regulations of the PGDipPP, can gain admission to the MPP.
- Progression to Level 9 courses is dependent upon satisfactory academic progress.
- Usually the applicant will be engaged in some form of socio-cultural practice.

Te Tohu Tītohu mō Te Aka Whakaaroaro | PGDipPP

- An undergraduate degree in a sociocultural field (socio-cultural practice refers to fields or disciplines in which understanding the value of customs, beliefs, values and language is essential for professional practice) with a B average or better; or
- Where the applicant does not meet the entry criteria above, the applicant may be provisionally admitted. Such provisionally accepted applicants will be expected to pass their first course in the programme in order to progress.
- Usually the applicant will be engaged in some form of socio-cultural practice.

English language entry requirements

Applicants for whom English is not their first language must have demonstrated an acceptable level of English language fluency prior to acceptance in the programme. Ways in which English language fluency may be demonstrated include successful study of a programme in which English was the language of instruction (conditions apply), completion of a New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Level 5 with the Academic endorsement), approved scores on IELTS tests (Academic score of 6.5 with no band score lower than 6, achieved in a single test) or completion of accepted international equivalents. All results for IELTS or other accepted English language tests must have been achieved in the two years prior to admission.

International applicants must obtain appropriate visas to study in New Zealand, and must be full-time learners each semester.

Entry with credit

Applicants may be admitted with credit transfer or recognition of prior learning.

The Postgraduate Programmes Cluster Committee shall have discretion in the granting of academic credit.

Academic credit may be awarded as:

- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) at level 8 and/ or Cross Credit (CC) of course(s) (specified credit) at NZQA level 8 which are relevant to the MPP and PGDipPP.
- Unspecified credit where the learning is broadly relevant to the MPP and PGDipPP, and can be determined to be equivalent to NZQA level 8.
- No more than 60 credits may be unspecified at level 8.
- Credits at level 9 may be awarded only for the course MHS9.241 Research Methods and Design.

The EIT | Te Pūkenga Postgraduate Certificate in Professional Supervision may be credited to either the MPP or the PGDipPP.

The Postgraduate Programmes Cluster Committee may grant credit, however, credit granted shall not be for courses completed as part of an undergraduate degree, nor shall credit exceed one-half of the total programme credits.

Notwithstanding the above, persons with a relevant postgraduate qualification, equivalent to NZQA Level 8 may be admitted to the MPP programme. Credit towards the MPP may be made up of specified and unspecified credits up to a maximum of 120 credits.

Where the applicant did not previously meet the MPP entry criteria and has successfully completed the EIT | Te Pūkenga PGDipPP, up to 120 credits towards the MPP may be approved.

Admission to the capstone research pathway normally requires that the applicant shall have achieved a B average across credited courses.

Blended learning

Lecturers are available to you via the EIT | Te Pūkenga online courses sites, virtual classrooms, online call platforms such as Microsoft Teams and in face-to-face classes.

Technology support

If you know how to send an email and access sites on the internet, you will have the basic skill needed to participate in blended activities. We will ensure you receive all support necessary to attain the skills you will need.

Learning between the face-to-face wānanga will be delivered online. You can either work from home or use our facilities. If working from home you will require the following:

- Computer with broadband internet access (dial up access is not recommended)
- Any operating system (preferably less than five years old and with sound)
- Software - Microsoft Office or similar, Adobe Acrobat reader, modern internet browser such as Firefox or Chrome
- Extras - USB stick (4gb recommended) and headset with microphone may be required for some courses

Assessments

Assessments may include presentations, documentation of the reflective process including research and critical evaluation, research proposals and research projects.

EIT is now part of Te Pūkenga

Te Pūkenga brings together New Zealand's Institutes of Technology, Polytechnics, and Industry Training Organisations to build a network of on job, on-campus and online learning. How to enrol

There is an easy 3-step process to follow when enrolling at EIT | Te Pūkenga.

Step 1

Check out eit.ac.nz to see the programmes available for you to study. A copy of the course information for each programme is available on our website.

Step 2

You can now use your RealMe verified identity to apply for study at EIT | Te Pūkenga. If you use your RealMe verified identity you will no longer be sent a copy of your application form to sign. You also will not need to provide us with a copy of your primary ID.

If you apply online without using RealMe then you will be sent a summary of your enrolment to check and sign. It will also include course selection forms which you need to complete and return. Your enrolment cannot progress until you have sent the summary and forms back to us.

You can also apply using a paper enrolment form. Please call us on 0800 22 55 348 and we will send you one out.

You will receive an acceptance letter from your Faculty with programme information. This will include the start date of your study and any special information regarding your programme. Depending on your chosen programme of study, you may be invited to attend an interview before you are accepted.

Step 3

Arrangement for full payment of enrolment fees must be made before the start of your programme. You will receive an invoice with payment details.

Fees-free government scheme: Tertiary education is fees-free for eligible domestic tertiary students. To check if you are eligible, go to FeesFree.govt.nz and enter your National Student Number (NSN). If you are not eligible you will be responsible for paying your fees.

Scholarships and grants: Scholarships and grants make life easier by helping to cover your fees, other costs and living expenses while you study. You don't always need to be an academic high-flyer to qualify. You can find out more about scholarships and other options for paying your fees at eit.ac.nz.

StudyLink: If you need to pay for your own study you can choose to apply for your Student Loan and Student Allowance with StudyLink. You should do this early, even if you haven't yet been accepted on your programme. You can change your details later if anything changes. Visit studylink.govt.nz to find out more about StudyLink.

Student services levy

The student services levy is a compulsory non-tuition fee that is charged to students enrolled at EIT | Te Pūkenga. The levy is to contribute to the provision of quality student services that support learning. The funds received by EIT | Te Pūkenga from the levy are ring-fenced, meaning they can only be spent on student services.

Student loans and allowances

StudyLink is a service of the Ministry of Social Development. Apply well before your programme begins (even if you haven't been accepted yet) so you'll be ready to get your payments when you need them most.

Check out what you qualify for at studylink.govt.nz.
