Te Pūkenga

Pursue your creative career

Delivery of Te Hono ki Toi (Poutiri-ā-rangi) | Bachelor of Professional Creative Practice (Honours) is “blended” - that is, a combination of online study, wānanga and research by creative practice. You will have opportunities to engage with staff and students based at both Toi Houkura and IDEASchool in Hawke's Bay, as well as students who may be practicing throughout Aotearoa and indeed the world.

Te Hono ki Toi (Poutiri-ā-rangi) is a 120 credit, one year full-time, level 8 programme. It consists of three compulsory courses that will build on your knowledge, skills, and attributes gained in your undergraduate degree in visual arts and design.

Career and study opportunities

As a graduate career opportunities can include:

- Advancement in creative practice/creative industries
- Self-employment/entrepreneurship
- Academic positions in creative practice
- Gallery owner/curator
- The ability to strengthen te toi Māori within a contemporary Māori context

Graduates of Te Hono ki Toi (Poutiri-ā-rangi) may apply to complete Te Hono ki Toi (Poutiriao) | Master of Professional Creative Practice (Level 9).

Timetable

Your study time will be made up of contact time (class times, tutorials, wānanga) and non-contact time (your own self-directed time, online learning).

Contact time

The full-time workload is primarily self-directed with on-campus classes operating through wānanga at Toi Houkura.

Non-contact time

You should plan to spend 976 hours of self-directed study.

Technology support

You need to have a computer with internet access.

Blended learning

Lecturers are available to students via the EIT | Te Pūkenga on-line courses sites, virtual classrooms, online conference, and face-to-face classes.

Entry requirements

- A NZQF-listed undergraduate degree (or equivalent) in a creative practice field with a minimum of the equivalent to a B average as per the EIT | Te Pūkenga-specified 11-point achievement-based grading system; or
- In the absence of the above, provisional admission on the basis of an evaluation of a portfolio of work; or
- At the discretion of EIT | Te Pūkenga, where an applicant's situation is compelling but not covered by the requirements listed above.

Māori/English language entry requirements

Applicants will need to demonstrate fluency, at a level sufficient to academically succeed in the course, in either Te Reo Māori or English.

Applicants who have the language fluency to support it may complete their assessments in Te Reo Māori.

Applicants from countries in which English is not a primary spoken language, who propose to complete their assessments in English, must have an acceptable level of English language fluency prior to enrolment in the programme. This may be demonstrated in a variety of ways, including successful study of a programme in which English was the language of instruction, completion of a New Zealand Certificate in English language (Level 4 Academic), approved scores on IELTS tests (6.0 Academic with no band score lower than 5.5), or completion of either an EIT | Te Pūkenga assessment or accepted international equivalents.

Standard discretionary entrance guidelines will apply.

Entry with credit

Applicants may be admitted with credit transfer or recognition of prior learning.

The Postgraduate Programmes Cluster Committee shall have discretion in the granting of academic credit.

Transfers/cross credits

Academic credit may be awarded as:

- Recognition of Prior Learning at level 8 and/or Cross Credit of course(s) (specified credit) at NZQA level 8 which are relevant to Te Hono ki Toi (Poutiri-ā-rangi) | Bachelor of Professional Creative Practice (Honours).

- The Postgraduate Programmes Cluster Committee may grant credit, however, credit granted shall not be for courses completed as part of an undergraduate degree, nor shall credit exceed one-half of the total programme credits.

For information and enquiries about Recognition of Prior Learning and Cross Credit please contact Toihoukura on 06 869 0847.

Facilities

Toihoukura consists of a number of studio spaces, a workshop, communal kitchen, two art galleries and office areas for academic and support staff.

Assessments

Assessments may include presentation, documentation of the creative process including research and critical evaluation, group activities, creative research proposals and creative bodies of work.

How to enrol

There is an easy 3-step process to follow when enrolling at EIT | Te Pūkenga.

Step 1

Check out eit.ac.nz to see the programmes available for you to study. A copy of the course information for each programme is available on our website.

Step 2

You can now use your RealMe verified identity to apply for study at EIT | Te Pūkenga. If you use your RealMe verified identity you will no longer be sent a copy of your application form to sign. You also will not need to provide us with a copy of your primary ID.

If you apply online without using RealMe then you will be sent a summary of your enrolment to check and sign. It will also include course selection forms which you need to complete and return. Your enrolment cannot progress until you have sent the summary and forms back to us.

You can also apply using a paper enrolment form. Please call us on 0800 22 55 348 and we will send you one out.

You will receive an acceptance letter from your Faculty with programme information. This will include the start date of your study and any special information regarding your programme. Depending on your chosen programme of study, you may be invited to attend an interview before you are accepted.

Step 3

Arrangement for full payment of enrolment fees must be made before the start of your programme. You will receive an invoice with payment details.

Fees-free government scheme: Tertiary education is fees-free for eligible domestic tertiary students. To check if you are eligible, go to FeesFree.govt.nz and enter your National Student Number (NSN). If you are not eligible you will be responsible for paying your fees.

Scholarships and grants: Scholarships and grants make life easier by helping to cover your fees, other costs and living expenses while you study. You don't always need to be an academic high-flyer to qualify. You can find out more about scholarships and other options for paying your fees at eit.ac.nz.

StudyLink: If you need to pay for your own study you can choose to apply for your Student Loan and Student Allowance with StudyLink. You should do this early, even if you haven't yet been accepted on your programme. You can change your details later if anything changes. Visit studylink.govt.nz to find out more about StudyLink.

Student services levy

The student services levy is a compulsory non-tuition fee that is charged to students enrolled at EIT | Te Pūkenga. The levy is to contribute to the provision of quality student services that support learning. The funds received by EIT | Te Pūkenga from the levy are ring-fenced, meaning they can only be spent on student services.

Student loans and allowances

StudyLink is a service of the Ministry of Social Development. Apply well before your programme begins (even if you haven't been accepted yet) so you'll be ready to get your payments when you need them most.

Check out what you qualify for at studylink.govt.nz.
